

Gary Geiger

Gary Geiger has lived on the Monterey Peninsula for almost 50 years and working as a professional photographer for over 40. On the business side he started his photography business in 1976 and specialized in corporate, portrait and landscape photography. He was born in San Francisco and raised in San Mateo and began his photographic career in 1970 after graduating from Brooks Institute of Photography with a bachelor of science degree. His work has been published in magazines, exhibited in galleries and utilized in interior design. Over the course of his career he produce 2 hardbound coffee table books on the Monterey Peninsula entitled "Among the Cypress and Monterey Peninsula A Cypress Shore. In 1982, with 2 other Brook's graduates, he took a 10 day zone system workshop in Virginia City from master photographer Oliver Gagliani. For the 40 years this trio has traveled the globe in pursuit of capturing the moment. His work can be viewed at Gallery Sur in Carmel.