

Richard Cannon

Biography

Richard Cannon is a native of San Jose, California, and has been creating fine art photography since for most of his adult life.

His photographs have been in numerous exhibits including The Avery Gallery (Seaside, CA), The Carmel Foundation, The Center for Photographic Art, Monterey Peninsula College, the Monterey Convention Center, the Pacific Grove Art Center, and the Triton Museum (Santa Clara, CA).

Several of his images are in the permanent collections of the Community Hospital of the Monterey Peninsula and Santa Clara's Triton Museum, as well as private collections in Carmel, La Jolla and Monterey.

Richard is a past president of the board of trustees of the Center for Photographic Art, and he recently completed a six-year term on the board of directors for The Carl Cherry Center.

In 2004, following thirty-five years of executive human resources management, Richard retired and moved to the Monterey where he now lives with his wife, Bette.
